

Looking For A House

Look at HIS Creation at all the wonders that we know
Do you wonder where HE lives where's the house HE calls home
Birds have trees they can nest in, foxes have holes in the ground
But outside your heart a home for HIM can't be found

HE'S looking for a house a place to call home
HE likes company HE doesn't want to be alone
Let HIM live in your heart and HIS search will be through
It's not just any house, it was made for HIM and you

You may be a beggar without a dime to your name
Or a multi-millionaire with the house of a king
HE sees past your surroundings and the things you can give
HE looks on the heart and hopes it's a place where HE can live

HE'S looking for a house a place to call home
HE likes company HE doesn't want to be alone
Let HIM live in your heart and HIS search will be through
It's not just any house, it was made for HIM and you

It's not just any house, it was made for HIM and you
